“Biichiweé / I’ll Tell A Story.” Poster Exhibit. Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library at the University of Montana. Missoula, Montana. Exhibit displayed October 2019-September 2020.

This exhibit focused on the Crow medicine woman Shitchish, otherwise known as Pretty Shield, utilizing her perspective to track the monumental shifts that she witnessed in the Northern Plains in the late-nineteenth and early-twentieth centuries. Some of these changes included: consequences of increased warfare in Crow society; the introduction of horses into Crow society; first-hand accounts of smallpox epidemics in Crow society; the introduction of guns into Crow society; some personal relationships that Shitchish developed during her life, especially to her husband, Goes Ahead, and the writer and ethnographer, Frank Bird Linderman.
